

The Summit Advantage

Connecting Businesses & Off-Duty Officers

Summit Off Duty Services creates and manages security programs for businesses, placing off-duty police officers at customer sites to protect people and property.

By simplifying off-duty officer staffing, Summit gives companies flexibility and freedom to focus on their business.

Hiring Off-duty Officers through Summit is Simple

1. Contact customer support and let us know about your safety and security need. We'll work with you to determine the best solution for your specific situation.
2. Summit identifies the best officers for the job and gets it scheduled.
3. Summit manages officers, as well as timely invoicing and bill pay.
